

AUTHOR'S AWARD NOMINATION

Definition This award honors an individual who has published an HIM article, within the past two calendar years, that instructs or guides members with new theoretical concepts or further develops concepts previously presented in another publication

Eligibility The nominee should be a NYHIMA Dues Paying Member, please contact the Central Office for member status verification prior to beginning the nomination process.

Examples of Written Work Authored book (co-author), book chapter, article, monograph, instructional guide

Evaluation of Written Work Work will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Providing tools to educate health information professionals or general public
- Presenting new theoretical concepts or further development of concepts previously presented
- Detailing hands-on practice techniques that are ready for implementation

Instructions: To assist the Awards Committee in its selection of the Author's Award, please (1) Provide the information in the order requested; (2) Confirm information with the Nominee; and (3) Confirm Eligibility with the Central Office prior to award submission.

Submit to: NYHIMA Central Office ATTN: Awards Committee 230 Washington Ave Ext. STE 101 Albany, NY 12203

NOMINEE

Name: _____ AHIMA ID# _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone (Day): _____ Phone (Evening): _____

Fax: _____ E-Mail: _____

CURRICULUM VITAE

Attach a current copy of the nominee's resume/curriculum vitae which includes job title and employer

WRITTEN WORK

Attach a complete copy of the nominated written work and provide the following:

Name of Publication: _____

Name of Publisher: _____

Publisher Address/Phone: _____

Title of Written Work: _____

Date of Publication: _____

NOMINATOR

(Provide identity of person making nomination.)

Name: _____

Address: _____

Day Phone: _____

Evening Phone: _____

E-Mail: _____